DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
DRUG ENFORCEMENT ADMINISTRATION

Docket No. 14-27
MARYANNE PHILLIPS-ELIAS, M.D.
DECISION AND ORDER

On October 23, 2014, Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) Christopher McNeil issued the attached Recommended Decision. Therein, the ALJ found that it was undisputed that Respondent's Nevada Controlled Substance Registration had been revoked and that she does not possess authority to dispense controlled substances in Nevada, the State in which she holds her DEA registration. R.D. at 6; see also id. at 2. The ALJ thus concluded that Respondent is no longer a practitioner within the meaning of the Controlled Substances Act and is therefore not entitled to be registered. He therefore recommended that I "deny Respondent's application for a DEA Certificate of Registration." R.D. at 9.

There is, however, no evidence that an application is currently pending before the Agency. Rather, the Government seeks the revocation of Respondent's registration, which does not expire until March 31, 2017, and authorizes her to dispense controlled substances in schedules II through V, at registered premises located in Henderson, Nevada. Order to Show Cause, at 1.

Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 824(a)(3), "[a] registration . . . to . . . dispense a controlled substance . . . may be suspended or revoked by the Attorney General upon a finding that the registrant . . . has had [her] State license or registration suspended, revoked, or denied by competent State authority and is no longer authorized by State law to engage in the . . . dispensing of controlled substances." This Agency has further held that notwithstanding that this provision grants the Agency authority to suspend or revoke a registration, other provisions of the Controlled Substances Act “make plain that a practitioner can neither obtain nor maintain a DEA registration unless the practitioner currently has authority under state law to handle controlled substances.” James L. Hooper, 76 FR 71371, 71372 (2011), pet. for rev. denied, Hooper v. Holder, 481 F. App’x 826 (4th Cir. 2012).

These provisions include section 102(21), which defines the term “practitioner” to “mean[] a physician . . . licensed, registered, or otherwise permitted, by . . . the jurisdiction in which [s]he practices . . . to distribute, dispense, [or] administer . . . a controlled substance in the course of professional practice,” 21 U.S.C. § 802(21), as well as section 303(f), which directs that “[t]he Attorney General shall register practitioners . . . to dispense . . . controlled substances . . . if the applicant is authorized to dispense . . . controlled substances under the laws of the State in which [s]he practices.” Id. § 823(f). Based on these provisions, the Agency has long held that revocation is warranted even where a state order has summarily suspended a practitioner’s controlled substances authority and the state agency’s order remains subject to challenge in either administrative or judicial proceedings.¹ See Gary Alfred Shearer, 78 FR 19009 (2013); Carmencita E. Gallora, 60 FR 47967 (1995).

Respondent argues that she “should be given a hearing to present evidence to refute the legitimacy of the revocation” of her state registration by the Nevada Pharmacy Board. Respondent’s Reply to the Govt.’s Mot. for Summary Judgment, at 2. According to Respondent, the Nevada Board’s Order is invalid “because the Board never identified the specific grounds for which [her] license should be revoked in Nevada.” Id. at 3.

Respondent thus seeks to collaterally attack the Nevada Board's Order. However, "DEA has repeatedly held that a registrant cannot collaterally attack the results of a state criminal or administrative proceeding in a proceeding brought under section 304 [21 U.S.C. § 824] of the CSA.'" Calvin Ramsey, 76 FR 20034, 20036 (2011) (quoting Hicham K. Riba, 73 FR 75773, 75774 (2008) (other citations omitted)); see also Shahid Musud Siddiqui, 61 FR 14818 (1996); Robert A. Leslie, 60 FR 14004 (1995). Respondent must therefore seek relief from the State Board's Order in those administrative and judicial forums provided by the State. Her various contentions as to the validity of the Nevada Pharmacy Board's order are therefore not material to this Agency's resolution of whether she is entitled to maintain her DEA registration.

As for her argument that the Agency's use of summary disposition to revoke her DEA registration has denied her "fundamental fairness" because DEA regulations provide that she is entitled to a hearing, Resp. Reply at 3; "summary judgment has been used for more than 100 years to resolve legal 'actions in which there is no genuine issue as to any material fact' and has never been deemed to violate Due Process." Ramsey, 76 FR at 20036 (citing Fed. R. Civ. P. 56 (Advisory Committee Notes – 1937 Adoption) and Codd v. Velger, 429 U.S. 624, 627 (1977)). Respondent was provided with the opportunity to dispute the material fact which is dispositive of the Government's allegation that she lacks authority to dispense controlled substances in the State in which she is registered and therefore cannot remain registered. I thus reject her contention that the use of summary disposition denied her fundamental fairness.

Accordingly, for reasons explained above and with the caveat that there is no application pending before the Agency, I adopt the ALJ's factual finding that Respondent's Nevada controlled substance registration has been revoked and therefore she does not possess authority under Nevada law to dispense controlled substances. I further adopt the ALJ's legal conclusion that Respondent is no longer a practitioner within the meaning of the CSA and is therefore not entitled to be registered. However, because there is no application currently pending before the Agency, I do not adopt those portions of his opinion which discuss whether Respondent's application should be granted or denied, including his Recommendation that I deny her application. Instead, for reasons explained above, I will order that Respondent's registration be revoked.

ORDER

Pursuant to the authority vested in me by 21 U.S.C. § 824(a) and 28 CFR 0.100(b) I order that DEA Certificate of Registration FP2501648 issued to Maryanne Phillips-Elias be, and it hereby is, revoked. This Order is effectively immediately.

Administrator

Brian Bayly, Esq., for the Government.

Michael Khouri, Esq., and Ashley K. Kagasoff, Esq., for the Respondent.

RECOMMENDED RULING, FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND DECISION OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE

Nature of the Case and Procedural History

Administrative Law Judge Christopher B. McNeil. Maryanne Phillips-Elias, M.D., the respondent in this case, is registered with the DEA as a practitioner in Schedules II through V under Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) certificate registration number FP2501648 at 9065 S. Peco Rd., Ste. 250, Henderson, NV 89074.¹ The registration number expires by its own terms on March 31, 2017.²

On September 17, 2014, the Deputy Administrator of the Drug Enforcement Administration, Office of Diversion Control, filed an Order to Show Cause as to why the DEA should not revoke her current certificate of registration, deny any applications for renewal or modification, and deny any application for any other DEA registration pursuant to 21 U.S.C. §823(f) and 21 U.S.C. § 824(a)(3).³ As grounds for revocation, the Government alleges that Respondent does not have authority to handle controlled substances in Nevada, the State in which Respondent is registered with the DEA.⁴

On September 26, 2014, Respondent, through her Attorneys, Ashley K. Kagasoff, Esq., and Michael Khouri, Esq., filed a timely request for hearing.⁵ Respondent does not dispute that her controlled substance registration was revoked by the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy.⁶ Instead, Respondent asserts that the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy acted on grounds that did not warrant discipline and that the Board's decision was arbitrary.⁷ Respondent has a writ, Maryanne Phillips v. Nevada State Board of Pharmacy,⁸ pending in the First Judicial Court of Carson City County, Nevada to set aside the decision to revoke Respondent's registration.⁹ Respondent asks me to delay any hearing until the writ is resolved.¹⁰ Alternatively, if the delay is not granted, Respondent expresses her wish to continue with the hearing as planned.¹¹

I received the Government's Motion for Summary Judgment on October 8, 2014, with proof of service upon Respondent, accompanied by supporting documentation.¹² In my Order of September 30, 2014, I directed the Government to provide evidence to support the allegation that Respondent lacks state authority to handle controlled substances.¹³ The factual premise relied upon by the Government in support of its motion is that Respondent does not have a controlled substance registration issued by the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy, the state in which Respondent is registered.¹⁴ Additionally, in the same Order, I provided Respondent the opportunity to respond to the Government's Motion for Summary Judgment.¹⁵ That response was due seven business days after service of the Government's motion on opposing parties.¹⁶ On October 17, 2014, I received Respondent's timely response.¹⁷ The Government exercised its right to reply to the response and submitted a reply on October 22, 2014.¹⁸

Regardless, the response was timely received.

¹⁸ Government's Reply in Support of its Motion to Summary Judgment dated Oct. 22, 2014 at 1.

Issue

The substantial issue raised by the Government rests on an undisputed fact. The Government asserts that Respondent's application must be summarily denied because Respondent does not have a controlled substance registration issued by the state in which she intends to practice.¹⁹ Under DEA precedent, a practitioner's DEA Certificate of Registration for controlled substances must be summarily revoked if the applicant is not authorized to handle controlled substances in the state in which she maintains DEA registration.²⁰ Unless from the pleadings now before me there is a material issue regarding Respondent's authority to handle controlled substances in Nevada, the application must be denied summarily, without a hearing.

Respondent's Contentions

In Respondent's Reply to the Motion for Summary Judgment, Respondent never disputes the Government's contention that she is not currently licensed by the State of Nevada to dispense controlled substances.²¹ Instead, Respondent asserts three legal arguments. Respondent's first legal argument is that Respondent should be given a hearing to present evidence to refute the legitimacy of the revocation.²² Respondent states her belief that the matter should be determined following the resolution of Respondent's writ and that the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy relied on insufficient grounds to revoke her state controlled substance registration.²³ Respondent's second argument is that she has been denied fundamental fairness by the DEA.²⁴ Respondent writes that “it does not make any sense that Respondent is given the right to a hearing only to get denied one, once the request is made.”²⁵ Finally, Respondent asserts that the DEA has discretion to do what is in the best interest of promoting the public interest.²⁶ After stating the five public interest factors provided by 21 U.S.C. §823(f), Respondent declares that allowing her to retain her license is not inconsistent with the public interest.²⁷

Scope of Authority

On September 17, 2014, the Deputy Administrator of the Drug Enforcement Administration, Office of Diversion Control, filed an Order to Show Cause proposing to deny the application pursuant to 21 U.S.C. §824(a)(3) and 21 U.S.C. § 823(f).²⁸

Respondent believes that she should be given a hearing to present evidence to refute the legitimacy of the revocation following the resolution of Respondent’s writ to demonstrate that the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy relied on insufficient grounds to revoke her state controlled substance registration.²⁹ However, the case before me is presented under a grant of authority to recommend that the Administrator either continue or revoke Respondent’s Certificate of Registration for controlled substances. Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 823(f), the DEA may grant such an application only to a “practitioner.” Under 21 U.S.C. § 802(21), a “practitioner” must be “licensed, registered, or otherwise permitted, by the United States or the jurisdiction in which he practices or does research, to distribute [or] dispense . . . controlled substance[s].” Given this statutory language, the DEA Administrator does not have the authority under the Controlled Substances Act to grant a registration to a practitioner if that practitioner is not authorized to dispense controlled substances.³⁰

The fact that Respondent is currently in the process of appealing what she views as an unjust decision of the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy does not change this outcome. As the Government notes, the assertion that she might prevail in overturning the Board's revocation order is "highly speculative."³¹ Even if Respondent was very likely to succeed on appeal, summary disposition is still appropriate. As the Government notes in its Reply in Support of its Motion for Summary Judgment, "[a]ll that matters is that Respondent lacks state authority to dispense or distribute controlled substances."³² Under no circumstances is the DEA authorized to provide a doctor, such as Respondent, the ability to dispense controlled substances when the doctor does not possess their state controlled substance registration. This limitation is not without meaning. In the first subchapter of the Controlled Substances Act (CSA), 21 U.S.C. § 801, Congress acknowledged that controlled substances when utilized improperly "have a substantial and detrimental effect on the health and general welfare of the American people."³³ Mandating that a practitioner possess state authority before providing a practitioner the privilege to handle controlled substances lowers the risk of diversion by illegitimate or unqualified practitioners.

Respondent also alleges that she has been denied fundamental fairness by the DEA.³⁴ Specifically, Respondent cites that fact that the Government's Order to Show Cause provides her notice of the opportunity of a hearing to show cause why the DEA should not revoke her DEA certificate of registration, but later denies her a hearing.³⁵ Although Respondent may believe it is unfair that the DEA denies her a hearing after issuing an Order to Show Cause, Respondent has failed to show that any disputed material fact is involved regarding her state controlled substance registration. If Respondent through her Reply to Government's Motion for Summary Judgment demonstrated that there was a dispute as to the material fact of whether her state controlled substance registration was revoked, I would not have dismissed this case without a comprehensive hearing. However, the inability for the DEA to grant Respondent a DEA certificate of registration without a valid state controlled substance registration prevents further consideration of this matter.

³⁰ See Abraham A. Chaplan, M.D., 57 Fed. Reg. 55280-03, 55280 (DEA November 24, 1992), and cases cited therein. In Chaplan, DEA Administrator Robert C. Bonner adopts the ALJ's opinion that "the DEA lacks statutory power to register a practitioner unless the practitioner holds state authority to handle controlled substances." Id.

Respondent's final argument is that the DEA has discretion to act in the public interest to not revoke Respondent's federal certificate of registration.³⁶ In her Reply to Government's Motion for Summary Judgment, Respondent correctly notes that to determine whether a DEA certificate of registration is in the public interest, a DEA ALJ must consider the factors enumerated under 21 U.S.C. §823(f).³⁷ Respondent proceeds to apply the factors to her specific situation to make the argument that she should not lose her DEA certificate of registration.³⁸ Quoting the Declaration of Ashley Kagasoff,³⁹ Respondent cites statements such as that she has never been convicted of a federal or state crime to support the notion that not revoking her DEA COR is consistent with the public interest.⁴⁰ Such statements made by Respondent are unpersuasive. If Respondent is successful in her writ and her state license to dispense controlled substances is restored, she is welcome to immediately apply for a new DEA certificate of registration. If Respondent's application for a new registration is opposed by the DEA and Respondent exercises her right to a hearing, it is at that time—not before that time—that a DEA ALJ will hear evidence from both Respondent and the Government as to whether the registration is consistent with the public interest.

Facts

Given this body of law, the material fact here, indeed the sole fact of consequence, is whether Respondent is authorized by the State of Nevada to dispense controlled substances. Where, as here, no material fact is in dispute, there is no need for an evidentiary hearing and summary disposition is appropriate.⁴¹ The sole question of fact before me can be addressed, and has been addressed, by the pleadings submitted to me by the parties. Our record includes no dispute regarding the Government's contention that the authority of Dr. Phillips-Elias to dispense controlled substances in Nevada was revoked by the Nevada State Board of Pharmacy on June 13, 2014.⁴² The reasons for the revocation are not material, given the statutory language set forth above.

Analysis, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

In determining whether to grant the Government's Motion for Summary Disposition, I am required to apply the principle of law that holds such a motion may be granted in an administrative proceeding if no material question of fact exists:

It is settled law that when no fact question is involved or the facts are agreed, a plenary, adversary administrative proceeding involving evidence, cross-examination of witnesses, etc., is not obligatory - even though a pertinent statute prescribes a hearing. In such situations, the rationale is that Congress does not intend administrative agencies to perform meaningless tasks (citations omitted).⁴³

⁴¹ See Michael G. Dolin, M.D., 65 Fed. Reg. 5661 (DEA February 4, 2000); see also Philip E. Kirk, M.D., 48 Fed. Reg. 32887 (DEA July 19, 1983), aff'd sub nom. Kirk v. Mullen, 749 F.2d 297 (6th Cir. 1984).

⁴² Order to Show Cause at 1.

⁴³ NLRB v. International Assoc. of Bridge, 549 F.2d 634, 638 (9th Cir. 1977) (quoting United States v. Consolidated Mines & Smelting Co., Ltd., 455 F.2d 432, 453 (9th Cir. 1971)).

In this context, I am further guided by prior decisions before the DEA involving certificate holders who lacked licenses to distribute or dispense controlled substances. On the issue of whether an evidentiary hearing is required, “it is well settled that when there is no question of material fact involved, there is no need for a plenary, administrative hearing.”⁴⁴ Under this guidance, the Government’s motion must be sustained unless a material fact question has been presented.

The sole determinative fact now before me is that Respondent lacks a Nevada controlled substance registration. In order for a doctor to receive a DEA registration authorizing her to dispense controlled substances under 21 U.S.C. § 823(f), she must meet the definition of “practitioner” as found in the Controlled Substances Act.⁴⁵ Such a person must be “licensed, registered, or otherwise permitted by . . . the jurisdiction in which he practices . . . to distribute, dispense, [or] administer . . . a controlled substance in the course of professional practice.”⁴⁶ Delegating to the Attorney General the authority to determine who may or may not be registered to perform these duties, Congress permitted such registration only to “practitioners” as defined by the Controlled Substances Act.⁴⁷

As cited by the Government in its Motion for Summary Judgment, there is substantial authority both through agency precedent and through decisions of courts in review of that precedent, holding that a doctor’s DEA controlled substance registration is dependent upon the doctor having a state license to dispense controlled substances.⁴⁸ Under the doctrine before me, the Government meets its burden of establishing grounds to deny an application for registration upon sufficient proof establishing the applicant does not possess a state controlled substance registration. That proof is in the record before me, and it warrants the summary revocation of Respondent’s DEA Certificate of Registration.

⁴⁴ See Michael G. Dolin, M.D., 65 Fed. Reg. 5661 (DEA February 4, 2000); Jesus R. Juarez, M.D., 62 Fed. Reg. 14945 (DEA March 28, 1997); see also Philip E. Kirk, M.D., 48 Fed. Reg. 32887 (DEA July 19, 1983), aff’d sub nom. Kirk v. Mullen, 749 F.2d 297 (6th Cir. 1984).

⁴⁷ 21 U.S.C. § 823(f).

⁴⁸ Government’s Motion for Summary Judgment at 1–3 and cases cited therein.

I am mindful of the arguments raised by Respondent in her Reply to the Government's Motion for Summary Judgment, including the fact that Respondent is currently appealing the revocation of her state controlled substance registration.⁴⁹ These difficulties do not, however, change the fact that without a state controlled substance registration, Respondent is not a "practitioner" and cannot be granted a Certificate of Registration.

Some care should be taken to assure the parties that the actions taken in this administrative proceeding conform to constitutional requirements. I have examined the parties' contentions with an eye towards ensuring all tenets of due process have been adhered to. There is, however, no authority for me to evaluate the facts that underlie Respondent's contentions. In the proceedings now before me, the only material question was answered by Respondent in her Request for Hearing. Further, while the Order to Show Cause sets forth a non-exhaustive summary of facts and law relevant to a determination that granting this application would be inconsistent with the public interest under 21 U.S.C. § 823(f), the conclusion, order and recommendation that follow are based solely on a finding that Respondent is not a "practitioner" as that term is defined by 21 U.S.C. § 802(21), and I make no finding regarding whether granting this application would or would not be inconsistent with the public interest.

Order Granting the Government's Motion for Summary Disposition and Recommendation

I find there is no genuine dispute regarding whether Respondent is a "practitioner" as that term is defined by 21 U.S.C. 802(21), and that based on the record the Government has established that Respondent is not a practitioner and is not authorized to dispense controlled substances in the state in which she seeks to operate under a DEA Certificate of Registration. I find no other material facts at issue, for the reasons set forth in the Government's Motion for Summary Disposition. Accordingly, I GRANT the Government's Motion for Summary Disposition.

⁴⁹ Reply to the Government's Motion for Summary Judgment at 2–3.

Upon this finding, I ORDER that this case be forwarded to the Administrator for final disposition and I RECOMMEND the Administrator DENY Respondent's application for a DEA Certificate of Registration.
